Dear Miss Crosby:

Your note of the 15th is at hand and I am enclosing a memorandum to cover your dues for the current year. You will be interested to know that at a meeting of the Publication Committee, held last week, the manuscript of your article on "A Hoard of Coins of the Achaean League" was submitted and accepted. It is possible that publication will have to be deferred to the end of this current year because of other monographs which must be given precedence, but I thought you would be interested to know of the Committee's decision in the meantime.

Very truly yours,

SN:JG

to cover our annual membership
dues for the year.
